an afternoon conversation with

ALICIA GARZA

On the 21st Century Civil Rights Movement

10.20.2015 | 4:30PM | GRAND BALLROOM, STAMP STUDENT UNION

A social activist committed to challenging society to recognize and celebrate the contributions of all individuals, specifically black people and queer communities, ALICIA GARZA is the co-creator of the viral twitter hash tag and movement, #BlackLivesMatter, a national organizing project which has evolved into the banner under which this generation’s civil rights movement marches.